Songs of Praise
A Centenary Celebration
October 30th 2015
6 p.m.

PRESIDENT: THE RIGHT REVD
MICHAEL LEWIS, BISHOP IN CYPRUS AND THE GULF

Order of Service

Organist: Norman Yates

Hymn 17: All People that on earth do dwell

Chosen by Vivienne Freeman (sang at the Coronation and this is her special record-breaking year)

Opening Prayers: The Revd Canon Derek Smith

Hymn 69: Breathe on me breath of God

Chosen by Maeve Prenton (The words say everything about trusting and serving God. Used at a recent retreat in Troodos);

Chosen by Marion & Derek (The words are my feelings)

Reading: Psalm 46

Chosen and read by Maeve Prenton (as above)

Hymn 234: I need Thee every hour

Chosen by Enid Shacallis (because it's true)

Solo: Sweet is the work, my God, my King

Sung by Margeret Yates

Hymn 310: Lord for the years

Chosen by Pat Hicks (The words seem appropriate for the occasion. The Lord is faithful. He has provided all our needs and more but we have to look for the future and pray for his continuing care)

Reading: Romans 8:28 – end

Chosen by Sue Smith ((A reading that I think sums up much of faith for me, particularly verses 37 to 39)

Chosen and read by David {& Heather} Henchie (statement of faith as followed by St Barnabas' worshipers for the last 100 years)

Hymn 464: Take my life

Chosen by Wendy Phillips (Memories of Sunday School and school leading me into my adult life)

Chosen by Nora Stevens (The hymn has great meaning in that it started my Christian life from Sunday School)

Reading: Acts 4:32-37 & 11:25 -26

Chosen by Charles Dodd (Extracts from the First One Hundred Years)

Read by Sue Smith

Hymn 4: A new commandment

Chosen by Pam Caulfield (Love is the essence of Christianity. It never fails)

Reading: 1 Corinthians 13

Chosen and read by Pam Caulfield (as above)

Hymn 31: And did those feet

Chosen by Jim Phillips (I miss England's green and pleasant land)

Reading: Psalm 121

Chosen and read by Christine Taylor (Always a favourite of mine)

Hymn 235: I the Lord of sea and sky

Chosen by Nora Ananiades (I love it and imagine that the rest of the congregation have chosen that one too)

Talk by Bishop Michael

Hymn 228: I danced in the morning

Chosen by Judy Mowbray (This is certainly a hymn of celebration. Also, the congregation love it!)

Reading: Matthew 7:24 – 27

Read by Julia Lewis

Hymn 541: What a friend we have in Jesus

Chosen by Barbara Clapham Senior (First taught to me by my grandmother and feels more relevant as the years go by)

Prayers: The Revd Clive Windebank

Blessing: Bishop Michael

Hymn 522: To God be the glory

Chosen by the Chinese Bible Study Group (because it praises God)

The Centenary Exhibition is open in the church hall

Refreshments will be served in the school room.

Everyone is welcome

Other hymns chosen by the congregation will be sung on Sunday:

10 a.m. Hymn 134: For all the saints - chosen by Andrea Beatty (in gratitude for Barnabas and all the saints who shaped our lives)

Hymn 287: Just as I am – chosen by Nan Weeks (my reason for this request is that it is Wonderful to feel that this is how God loves me)

Hymn 317: Lord, the light of your love – chosen by Tracey Vlamis (very uplifting song)

6 p.m. Hymn 188: Guide me, O Thou great Redeemer – chosen by Christine Taylor (always a favourite of mine)

Hymn 226: I cannot tell – chosen by David and Heather Henchie (statement of faith as followed by St Barnabas' worshipers for the last 100 years)
