The practice of power

Mark 6.14-29

John the Baptist has criticised Herod's wife, Herodias. Therefore, she becomes angry and wants to kill John. Although Herod is enraged too, he respects John and knows that he is a holy man. At a party, Herod promises his stepdaughter anything she wants, and on her mother's advice she asks for the head of John the Baptist. Although Herod doesn't want to kill John, he has to keep a promise made in front of his guests.

It is a story that raises questions about who influences us, who we listen to, and what governs our actions.

This week we explore who and what rules our actions.

Collect We say together

Creator God,
you made us all in your image:
may we discern you in all that we see,
and serve you in all that we do;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PSALM 24 We say together lines in bold type

1 The earth is the LORD's and all that is in it,
the world, and those who live in it;
2 for he has founded it on the seas,
and established it on the rivers.
3 Who shall ascend the hill of the LORD?
And who shall stand in his holy place?
4 Those who have clean hands and pure hearts,
who do not lift up their souls to what is false,
and do not swear deceitfully.
5 They will receive blessing from the LORD,
and vindication from the God of their salvation.
6 Such is the company of those who seek him,
who seek the face of the God of Jacob.^[a] Selah
7 Lift up your heads, O gates!
and be lifted up, O ancient doors!
that the King of glory may come in.
8 Who is the King of glory? The LORD, strong and mighty,
the LORD, mighty in battle.
9 Lift up your heads, O gates! and be lifted up, O ancient doors!
that the King of glory may come in.
10 Who is this King of glory? The LORD of hosts, he is the King of glory.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning is now and shall be for ever. Amen.
