Making an impression

Mark 1.21-28

Jesus' healing of a man with an 'unclean spirit' is the first act he does in Mark's Gospel and it is dramatic. He is presenting himself from the start as someone who will be different and will make a difference. Both Jesus' teaching and his actions reveal that he is the 'Holy One of God', and the word begins to spread about him.

What is it about Jesus' words and actions that show authority? What do you need to see to give authority to someone's words?

This week we explore how we recognise authority.

Join Father Ian for our Zoom services but please remember to TURN ON MUTE we should only hear the voice of person reading.

COLLECT     We say together

God of heaven,
you send the gospel to the ends of the earth
and your messengers to every nation:
send your Holy Spirit to transform us
by the good news of everlasting life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

PSALM 111

- 1 Praise the LORD. I will extol the LORD with all my heart in the council of the upright and in the assembly.
- 2 Great are the works of the LORD; they are pondered by all who delight in them.
- 3 Glorious and majestic are his deeds, and his righteousness endures forever.
- 4 He has caused his wonders to be remembered; the LORD is gracious and compassionate.
- 5 He provides food for those who fear him; he remembers his covenant forever.
- 6 He has shown his people the power of his works, giving them the lands of other nations.
- 7 The works of his hands are faithful and just; all his precepts are trustworthy.
- 8 They are established for ever and ever, enacted in faithfulness and uprightness.
- 9 He provided redemption for his people; he ordained his covenant forever— holy and awesome is his name.
- 10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom; all who follow his precepts have good understanding. To him belongs eternal praise.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning is now and shall be for ever. Amen.
