Post Communion Prayer

Keep, O Lord, your Church, with your perpetual mercy; and, because without you our human frailty cannot but fall, keep us ever by your help from all things hurtful, and lead us to all things profitable to our salvation; through Jesus Christ our Lord. – Amen

Psalm 146

Praise the LORD. Praise the LORD, O my soul.

I will praise the LORD all my life; I will sing praise to my God as long as I live.

Do not put your trust in princes, in mortal men, who cannot save.

When their spirit departs, they return to the ground; on that very day their plans come to nothing.

Blessed is he whose help is the God of Jacob, whose hope is in the LORD his God,

The Maker of heaven and earth, the sea, and everything in them– the LORD, who remains faithful forever.

He upholds the cause of the oppressed and gives food to the hungry. The LORD sets prisoners free,

The LORD gives sight to the blind, the LORD lifts up those who are bowed down, the LORD loves the righteous.

The LORD watches over the alien and sustains the fatherless and the widow, but he frustrates the ways of the wicked.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now and shall be forever. – Amen

SEEKING A VISION – Sunday 30 September

Everyone in church will be invited to write down: “In the light of our gifts, strengths, and in the light of the needs we see before us: a single response to:

1. How can we advance our LIFE TOGETHER INSIDE our churches?
2. How can we advance our OUTREACH – OUT in the community?

These priorities will be in addition to the Worship of Almighty God through Christ, which of course is our primary aim and the foundation and function of the Church. The Council asks: “Please start to reflect and pray about what items you may highlight for us”.
