Surprised by God

Peter is preaching the gospel in Caesarea, and – just as at Pentecost – people are filled with the Holy Spirit. But these people are Gentiles. Those with Peter are astounded, but Peter knows this is because the gospel is for all people. The people are baptized and Peter stays with them for a while.

Stereotypes are nothing new. Early Church believers had fixed ideas about who was included in their community and their ideas were challenged so that the Church could grow. Can we open our minds, hearts and doors to new people? Like the apostle Peter, we may be surprised by what God has in store.

Collect We say together

God our redeemer,
you have delivered us from the power of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of your Son:
grant, that as by his death he has recalled us to life,
so by his continual presence in us he may raise us
to eternal joy;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Psalms 98

- 1 Sing to the Lord a new song, for he has done marvelous things; his right hand and his holy arm have worked salvation for him.
- 2 The Lord has made his salvation known and revealed his righteousness to the nations.
- 3 He has remembered his love and his faithfulness to Israel; all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.
- 4 Shout for joy to the Lord, all the earth, burst into jubilant song with music;
- 5 make music to the Lord with the harp, with the harp and the sound of singing,
- 6 with trumpets and the blast of the ram's horn—shout for joy before the Lord, the King.
- 7 Let the sea resound, and everything in it, the world, and all who live in it.
- 8 Let the rivers clap their hands, let the mountains sing together for joy;
- 9 let them sing before the Lord, for he comes to judge the earth. He will judge the world in righteousness and the peoples with equity.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit as it was in the beginning is now and shall be for ever. Amen.
