What kind of king is Jesus?

Jesus sends two of his disciples to fetch a donkey on which he will ride into Jerusalem. As Jesus rides towards Jerusalem, bystanders greet him with shouts of acclamation.

Some spread their cloaks, and others leafy branches, on the road as he passes by. When he reaches Jerusalem, Jesus goes immediately to the Temple.

In today's service we reflect on the importance of Jesus fulfilling the Messianic prophesy set out in the Old Testament reading, and pause at the beginning of Holy Week to think about the Passion of our Lord (the suffering of Jesus), leading to His death on the cross and the darkness of Good Friday.

Collect We say together

Almighty and everlasting God,
who in your tender love towards the human race
sent your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ to take upon him our flesh
and to suffer death upon the cross:
grant that we may follow the example of his patience and humility,
and also be made partakers of his resurrection;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

Psalm 118 v 19 - End Please join in with verses in bold type.

- 19 Open for me the gates of the righteous;
I will enter and give thanks to the Lord.
- 20 This is the gate of the Lord
through which the righteous may enter.
- 21 I will give you thanks, for you answered me;
you have become my salvation.
- 22 The stone the builders rejected has become the cornerstone;
- 23 the Lord has done this, and it is marvelous in our eyes.
- 24 The Lord has done it this very day; let us rejoice today and be glad.
- 25 Lord, save us! Lord, grant us success!
- 26 Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
From the house of the Lord we bless you.
- 27 The Lord is God, and he has made his light shine on us.
With boughs in hand, join in the festal procession
up to the horns of the altar.
- 28 You are my God, and I will praise you;
you are my God, and I will exalt you.
- 29 Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; his love endures forever.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit as it was in the beginning is now and shall be for ever. Amen.

Post Communion Prayer We say together

Lord Jesus Christ,
you humbled yourself in taking the form of a servant,
and in obedience died on the cross for our salvation:
give us the mind to follow you
and to proclaim you as Lord and King,
to the glory of God the Father.

Last Sunday's Sermon. John 12 v20-33. As we reflect on the parallels between this season of Lent and Passiontide and the work of a gardener, let us remember that just as a gardener diligently tends to the soil to produce a bountiful harvest, so too must we nurture our spiritual lives during this season of preparation. "The Son of Man" is glorified through total obedience.

Lent Tree. If you wish to put names on the Lent Prayer Tree at the back of church, they will be saved and prayed for together at the end of Lent.

12 noon; it will be followed by a simple soup and bread lunch. Everyone is plan to attend, to help with numbers for catering. Message/text: 95
